

Question 1

Underline the part of the sentence which shows present perfect tense.

Shaan Casey has played for Norwich United for three seasons.

Question 2

Circle the determiners in the sentence.

The dog chased three cats in his garden.

Question 3

Add an apostrophe for possession.

Cindys parrot sat on its perch.

Question 4

Is the word 'after' used as a subordinate conjunction or preposition in the sentence?

After sunset, Millie looked through her telescope.

Question 1

The underlined part of the sentence shows present perfect tense.

Shaan Casey has played for Norwich United for three seasons.

Question 2

There are three determiners in the sentence:

The dog chased three cats in his garden.

Question 3

The apostrophe should be added where shown.

Cindy's parrot sat on its perch.

Question 4

The word after is a preposition.

After sunset, Millie looked through her telescope.

Question 1

Rewrite the sentence with the subordinate clause at the beginning.

Martin flew his kite as it was windy.

Question 2

Insert two hyphens into the sentences below.

Joe's nan was lightning quick at cross stitching.
With her eagle eye, she could spot any of the careless mistakes she had made.

Question 3

Change the verbs into simple past tense.

Helen drinks tea in the morning.

Paul picks strawberries from his local farm.

Question 4

Circle the relative pronoun in the sentence.

The shop, that was round the corner, sold
football cards.

Question 1

The sentence should be rewritten as follows:

As it was windy, Martin flew his kite.

Question 2

The two hyphens should be placed as shown.

Joe's nan was lightning-quick at cross-stitching.
With her eagle eye, she could spot any of the careless mistakes she had made.

Question 3

The verbs should be in simple past tense.

Helen drank tea in the morning.
Paul picked strawberries from his local farm.

Question 4

The relative pronoun should be circled.

The shop, that was round the corner, sold
football cards.

Question 1

Which sentence uses capital letters correctly?

Amy James won A National Television Award.

Amy James won a national television award.

Amy james won a national television award.

Amy James won a National Television Award.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

Question 2

Name a different type of punctuation which could mark the parenthesis in this sentence.

The referee, who consulted VAR, awarded a penalty.

Question 3

Change the sentence from past progressive to present progressive tense.

The plane was taxiing to the runway.

Question 4

Tick the sentences that are in active voice.

The rucksack was carried by the mountaineer.

The mountaineer ate a light snack.

The climber's dog followed the path.

The mountain was covered by cloud.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

Question 1

This sentence uses capital letters correctly...

Amy James won A National Television Award.

Amy James won a national television award.

Amy james won a national television award.

Amy James won a National Television Award.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Question 2

The parenthesis in this sentence could also be marked using brackets or dashes.

The referee, who consulted VAR, awarded a penalty.

Question 3

The sentence written in present progressive tense is as follows...

The plane is taxiing to the runway.

Question 4

Two sentences are written in active voice.

The rucksack was carried by the mountaineer.

The mountaineer ate a light snack.

The climber's dog followed the path.

The mountain was covered by cloud.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

Question 1

Add suffixes to change the verbs to nouns.

amaze → _____

create → _____

Question 2

Add a fronted adverbial to the sentence.

I am going to the library.

Question 3

Circle the subject and underline the object of the sentence.

He watches films.

Question 4

Circle the modal verbs in the sentence.

The tree may be replanted if we can buy the new shed.

Question 1

With suffixes the verbs change to nouns .

amaze → amazement

create → creation

Question 2

There are various possibilities to how you can add a fronted adverbial.

It must be followed by a comma.

E.g. In the morning, I am going to the library.

Question 3

The subject is circled; the object is underlined.

He watches films.

Question 4

There are two modal verbs in the sentence.

The tree may be replanted if we can buy the new shed.

Question 1

Write a sentence which uses 'model' as a verb.

Question 2

Which word class do the underlined words belong to?

The travel agent recommended that we go on holiday to Greece or Turkey. When we have made our decision, she can help us book it.

Question 3

Add a colon into the sentence.

We did not have time to complete our artwork today the fire alarm sounded during the lesson.

Question 4

Underline the longest noun phrase in the sentence below.

Oscar rode the baby-blue bicycle.

Question 1

A sentence should be written which uses 'model' as a verb.

E.g. I model pots using clay.

Question 2

The underlined words are conjunctions.

The travel agent recommended that we go on holiday to Greece or Turkey. When we have made our decision, she can help us book it.

Question 3

A colon should be added where shown:

We did not have time to complete our artwork today: the fire alarm sounded during the lesson.

Question 4

The longest possible noun phrase in the sentence has been underlined.

Oscar rode the baby-blue bicycle.

